THE HIDDEN GEMS OF THE WINE WORLD

The world of wine is colourful, wide, and diverse – there are thousands of less known, indigenous grape varieties that produce some very original, worth trying wines. Nevertheless, it's not always easy to find and try them so we decided to take the unbeaten path and prepared an interesting selection of 'original wines' for our fellow wine lover customers.

BULGARIA

Chardonnay – Ottonel, Gea – Neragora Estate, White 28.00

Thracian Valley - Bulgaria Organic Wine

A fresh and aromatic white wine dedicated to the goddess Gea, Mother Earth in Greek Mythology, who gives life and sustenance to all beings. The wine is a blend of Chardonnay and Muscat Ottonel - Soft and harmonious with elegant body, excellent acidity, notes of summer flowers, peaches, lime and a nice persistent finish. (3)

Gamza, Gomotartzi – Bononia Estate, Red 27.00

Danube Plain – Bulgaria

Very fresh and fruity, light to medium bodied, ripe cherry and red berry notes, a herbal touch on the mid palate, very elegant with silky tannins and a mild fruity sweetness on the finish. An extraordinary wine made from the indigenous Bulgarian grape Gamza. Must try if you like light and breezy reds. (3.5)

GREECE

Moschofilero, 'Feast', Semeli Estate, White 26.00

Mantinia - Greece

An elegant Greek wine of yellow-white, almost transparent colour with green hues. Pleasant aromas of rose petals, lemon blossom and citrus accentuate the palate. Fruity driven, refreshing mouthfeel, balanced with medium acidity and subtle aftertaste. (4)

Xinomavro Jeunes Vignes, Thymiopoulos, Red 29.00

Naoussa - Greece

The Nebbiolo of the Balkans, that is what they call this potent and versatile Greek grape. Thymiopoulos Winery worked intensely on the variety for many years and Jeunes Vignes is the culmination of a great effort. A beautiful light purple colour, bright, pure and elegant with a wonderful perfume of red fruits, sun dried tomato, sweet spices and herbaceous undertones giving an excellent freshness. Selected 'The Most Exiting Wine Of The Year' by Decanter Magazine in 2018.

LEBANON

Viognier-Chardonnay, Domain Des Tourelles White 27.00

Beqaa Valley - Lebanon Vegetarian, Vegan

This wine is surprisingly fresh and bursting with peach and apricot flavours. Spicy, white peach characters with a sublime perfume of jasmine. Beautifully balanced with an impressive backbone of elegant minerality. This is a delight to the senses.

Cabernet Sauvignon – Syrah, Domain Des Tourelles Red 27.00

Beqaa Valley – Lebanon Vegetarian, Vegan

A wine packed with flavour and heritage from one of the most challenging wine regions in the world – Beqaa Valley, Lebanon. Deep ruby red with fantastically expressive aromas of cherries, cedar wood, rosemary and cloves. A rich savoury palate with lots of Morello cherry and blackberry flavours, some earthy spice and fine tannins.

FRANCE

Gros Manseng - Uva Non Grata, White, Boutinot 24.00

South France Vegetarian, Vegan

A truly original, delicious wine made from kind of obscure but potent Gros Manseng grape variety. Zingy, incense-smoked and delicious, with an almost off dry feeling and abundance of tropical fruits and mild spices on the palate. Uva Non Grata can be translated as 'The unwelcomed grape' and for years Gros Manseng was treated as a lower quality blend grape but this very wine shows that the truth is different!

Gamay - Uva Non Grata, Red, Boutinot 24.00

South France Vegetarian, Vegan

Bouncy, crunchy Gamay, this no-fuss wine is an irresistible fruit bomb packed with amazing primary fruit aromas, delicious soft red berry flavours and a note of dark chocolate. Gamay was outlawed by the Duke of Burgundy Philip the Bold in 1395. Thankfully some vigneron rebels, hiding forbidden Gamay vines amongst 'noble' Pinot Noirs and that wine proves them right.

TURKEY

Emir - K Kocabağ White 24.00

Cappadocia - Turkey

Perfect minerality, delicate fruits, admirable balance and a long, sunny finish, as the summer days of this amazing region in Turkey – Cappadocia, from where the Emir grape originates. A wine that can rival some really good quality Chablis and Loire whites, at the same time. If that sounds contradictory to you please give it a try. (2.5)

Kalecik Karası - K Kocabağ Red 24.00

Central Anatolia - Turkey

Another rare grape gem from Central Anatolia - Kalecik Karası. Think of it as a Pinot Noir but with slightly fuller body, pronounced cherry and candied fruit aromas. This wine in particular is very well balanced, with soft tannins and hints of pomegranate and red berries. (3)
